A WESTERN LETTER.

Chattanooga—The Different Routes to St. Louis—The Stream of Emigrants—How the Agents Fool People.

ON BOARD THE "BELLE ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI RIVER, ABOVE CAIRO, February 29, 1872. }

Editors Constitution: The writer supplied himself with a ticket for Chattanooga, intending there to determine which route to travel for St. Louis, the queen city of the West. The beauties of one of the loveliest days, such as we only notice in the South towards the last of February, added to the courtesies of our popular Western and Atlantic Railroad conductor, S. Bell, conspired to render the ride to Chattanooga extremely delightful. Finding the westward bound trains would not leave until 8 P. M., we occupied the afternoon, in company with an esteemed friend, in looking at Chattanooga, her wharfs, etc., as the arrival time of our train up was one o'clock. We were no less astonished than pleased to notice a wonderful growth in building improvements, railroads, bulk of business, manufacturing, and hotel accommodations, at this same thriving, noisy town. We were deeply impressed with the purpose, everywhere shown by the citizens, that they had resolved to build a city, and we assure the Atlantese that they must look to their laurels, for Chattanooga means business.

We decided to invest in the route via Nashville and Hickman on the Mississippi, taking our chances to strike at that point a good boat bound for St. Louis. This route is not the speediest, but having a little time and wishing to get a full knowledge of travel on the Mississippi, we preferred it. The quickest route is via Nashville, Louisville, Union City, etc., to St. Louis—all rail. Another route, but a slower one, is via Corinth, thence across Tennessee to Columbus, Ky., and the Iron Mountain Railroad to St. Louis. This is also all rail, but has the advantage of landing the traveler in St. Louis in day time. First-class fare $24 00 from Chattanooga, by either of the last two. The route chosen by the writer might be termed the middle route, and is via Nashville, thence through middle of West Tennessee via Nashville and N. W. Railroad to Hickman, Ky. Passing along through the western part of Tennessee, we noticed many fine bodies of land highly cultivated. The most striking feature to the traveler, however, is the daily stream of emigrants from all points East and South, who are moving out by thousands to populate the vast empire rising every year in greater proportions west of the Father of Waters. There seems no end to them, and they travel all routes.

At Hickman we were in good fortune, as the Belle St. Louis, one of the largest and most elegant boats plying between Memphis and St. Louis, was at the pier and almost ready to start. Just here we must be faithful to history and assure travelers that they need not place too much confidence in what ticket agents declare about the certainty of striking the boats according to arrival of trains on the Mississippi. There is no certainty in it. We happened to be on this occasion simply in luck. Another point, despite the assurance of the agent selling my ticket, that meals on the boats were furnished free of charge, I have paid extra for every meal, and the captain assures me that none of the boats on the line furnish meals, except to such passengers who purchase regular boat tickets, which are sold higher than the railroad tickets are, which carry you partly by rail and partly by boat. Sundry half dollars may be estimated, therefore, by those buying tickets from Railroad agents who sell coupons via Mississippi boats. On the coast, going east, one ticket by steamer back or forth guarantees meals and passage money both.

As we are well loaded with cotton, pig-iron, etc., our speed going up is not over eight miles per hour. Going down well loaded it is not over ten. Best time ever made by an empty boat, we are informed, for the entire trip, 1,250 miles—New Orleans to St. Louis—going up was 14 miles per hour, with but two stops on the entire route. One of the flat boats going down empty, running against time, would make 23 to 25 miles per hour. The cotton we are carrying up will go East from St. Louis. The pig-iron is for the foundries above. No mountain scenery as yet.

Very respectfully,

M. E. COOPER.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The charter elections throughout the State indicate but little change in the strength of the parties.

A Raleigh, North Carolina, special reports that Henry Berry Lowry, chief of the Robeson county outlaws, was killed by his brother Stephen Lowry, a member of the gang.

The weather continues intensely cold. The ice is increasing. Some ferries have stopped, and all are impeded. A man was found frozen on 47th street with the reins in his hand, his horses going quietly along. Two others were found frozen dead. Nearly all the sailors arriving are frost bitten.

TROY, March 6.—The Democrats elected the city ticket by 1,000 majority.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—Judge Cooley has re-arrested Van Norden, who was pardoned by Gov. Warmoth, and committed him to the Parish prison. Judge Cooley delivered a lengthy discourse on the action of the Governor yesterday, in pardoning the prisoner and attempting to defeat the end of justice, in which he said, if the Governor were to be permitted to exercise such functions we might well abolish the courts entirely, for there could be no order executed against a party who might be fortunate enough to have the Governor to back him. The Judge further asserted that the Governor was a party to the suit from which the arrest originated.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, March 6.—Hon. Thomas M. Brown, a prominent lawyer, fell dead on the pavement, while returning home from his office.

Colonel Lanahan, a prominent lawyer of Paris, Tennessee, was shot dead at Henry Station, Tennessee.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, March 6.—Eleven business houses and dwellings were burned at Mason's Station on the Murfreesborough and Louisville Railroad. Loss, $70,000. Insurance small.

UTAH.

PENNSYLVANIA.

ALLENTOWN, March 6.—The National Convention of the Patriotic Sons of America has convened. A national camp of the order has been organized with Henry J. Slayer, of Pennsylvania, as President, and H. W. Wilkinson as Secretary. Several States are represented.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 6.—John Bright writes to the Anti-Income Tax Association that the abolition of the odious tax must follow a decrease of expenditures, and advises the withholding of confidence in a government which takes seventy million pounds from the industry of the people.

The counsel for the Tichborne claimant withdrew his case from the court, whereupon the claimant was ordered to be arrested for perjury. Fifty thousand pounds was his bail. It is believed that he has fled.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, March 6.—The report that the Pope intends leaving Rome, has been discredited here.

Here is a chap who knows how it is himself: "A pair of sweet lips, a pink waist, a swelling chest, and a pressure of two of a delicate hand, will as much unhinge a man as three fevers, the measles, a large sized hooping cough, a pair of lock jaws, several hydrophobias, and the doctor's bill."

☞ Small pox still haunts New York city.

☞ Rome has done a good thing. It has passed a law excluding stock of all kinds from the streets.

When may we expect Atlanta to do the same?

Chief Justice Warner.

This distinguished gentleman was out on the streets yesterday for the first time since his sickness. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his recovery and restoration to the exalted sphere of usefulness he has so brilliantly occupied.

How the Churches Grew in 1871.

The Episcopal gained 24,124 members; Methodists, 58,387; Reunited Presbyterians, 7,770; Southern Presbyterians, 5,302; Baptists, 77,795; Congregationalists, 13,501. The total membership is this: Episcopal, 224,-95; Methodist, 1,172,009; Reunited Presbyterian, 455,378; Southern Presbyterian, 87,-29; Baptist, 1,414,403.

☞ Forney's two-term pathetic story about Grant—saying that Grant consented to be a candidate for the Presidency only upon the assurance that he should have a second term—is proved to be a pure invention. The New York Tribune exposes the falsehood of the tale by quotations from Forney's own paper, published in 1868, zealously advocating and insisting upon the one-term principle, and asserting that General Grant was himself in favor of it.

North Carolina Under Robber Rule.

It is a curious condition of things in North Carolina that a band of desperate banditti is able to plunder the State. It is called the Lowry gang. It has been able, in a few months, to commit sixteen murders and over 100 robberies without losing a man of the band, and in utter defiance of any attempt at arrest. The members live in the swamps and are of a hybrid negro-Italian-white breed. The leader cannot read or write. He is a most desperate character.

It looks as if it will be necessary to call out the military, raise the black flag, and declare war.

Progress.

Who will say Cuffee is not on the forward schedule? Two ginger cake colored prima donnas have made their debut in New York city.

On Tuesday night, a week ago, two thousand of the colored race attended at Steinway's Hall to listen to these new musical stars. Nellie Brown and Marianne Williams were their names, and they excited immense enthusiasm among their colored brethren and sisters. Nellie is the best looking and was most cheered.

Why should not the colored people succeed in scientific music. Their capabilities in this direction are great. Who that has lived in the negro section of our Southern States but can recall the rude but sweet capacities for music that belonged uniformly to the colored race? Their demonstrations of untaught but powerful and suggestive melody at corn shuckings and similar occasions are fresh in memory of thousands.

Surely let Cuffee and Dinah press forward and grapple with opera.

Salt.

The duty on salt has neither decreased imports nor increased home production. The duty pays less than $1,200,000 revenue, while it puts a tax on the people of $7,000,000 or more.

It has really happened that the remission of duties on salt has stimulated home production.

From 1820 to 1830 under tariffs, the domestic production increased only ten per cent., while importation grew 42 per cent. and this with salt at 50 cents per bushel.

From 1830 to 1840 under non-protective tariffs, domestic salt at 30 cents a bushel, grew 42 per cent., while imports were stationary.

Is it not time, then, to make salt free? A certain amount of foreign salt is needed for its superior qualities for some purposes. High duties give manufacturers a monopoly, and they keep up prices by restricting production. Low duties compel them to greater production to undersell the foreign rival.

It is said that the pork packing of the United States is fast going to Canada, where salt is free.

Certainly it is time to reverse the policy on this subject. Let salt be free.

The New Labor Movement.

The nomination of Judge Davis and Governor Parker, by the National Labor Convention of Columbus, Ohio, on the 22d of February, for a Presidential ticket, has stirred much excitement.

Judge Davis is a moderate Republican. He is a Marylander by birth, and fifty-seven years old. He was a conservative Henry ... Whig. He settled in Illinois, was a State Legislator in 1844, delegate to State Constitutional Convention in 1847, District Judge in 1848, 1855, and 1861.

In 1860 he was a delegate to the Chicago Convention, and aided in securing Lincoln's nomination. In 1862, Lincoln appointed Judge Davis Associate Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, which office he still holds. He was executor of Mr. Lincoln's will.

Judge Davis is rich, of fine personal character, and a very good Judge. His decision making the legal tender act constitutional did not engratiate him with the Democracy. He has been very conservative in his Republicanism.

Governor Parker, the Democratic Governor of New Jersey, is the candidate for Vice-President, and has been favorably spoken of as a Presidential nominee for the Democracy.

The nomination of these two gentlemen by the labor party is said to have the result of a combination between some of the most astute politicians of the country. It has created quite an alarm in the Grant faction. If the Liberal Union Convention of moderate Republicans at Cincinnati in May shall endorse this nomination the aspect will become serious to Grant.

A German, while crossing the Allegheny mountains during the winter, states: "When going up de mountain, his foot slipped on the ice, and he coom down on the ... his back, mit his face sticking in de ... dere he shtood."

SOMETHING INTERESTING.

Bullock Convicted of Falsehood in Connection with the Brunswick and Albany Railroad—Trick to Get Indorsed Bonds.

BALTIMORE, March 1, 1872.

Editors Constitution: The Chief Engineer of the Brunswick and Albany Railroad has kindly sent me the following communication from Gov. Bullock to Henry Clews & Co.:

ATLANTA, GA., June 6, 1871.

Henry Clews & Co., 32 Wall street:

State Engineer on Brunswick and Albany Railroad reports two hundred and thirteen miles graded and one hundred and eighty-three miles ironed, with a force of three thousand men at work, and says the road will be completed to Eufaula, two hundred and forty-two miles early in October. Revenue of State last year, upon report of Treasurer, one million six hundred and thirty-five thousand seven hundred and sixty-five dollars. Return this year show increase of upwards twenty millions taxable property over last year. Increased revenue from Western and Atlantic Railroad, two hundred and fifty-five thousand dollars.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK.

I was appointed State Engineer by Gov. Bullock in October, 1869, and held the office until the great Kimball collapse, which stopped the occupation of a great many, and rendered my position unnecessary. The above communication, in so far as it refers to me and the Brunswick and Albany Railroad, is false in every particular. I was not on the road in June, and gave no certificates. It was not until October, 1871, that I gave Gov. Bullock a letter respecting the road and its then completion only to Albany, 170 miles. It was not my business to say when the graduation would be done, or what force worked, and I never made such report. If Governor Bullock ever was told the above it was without authority by those who were anxious to get the indorsed bonds.

The above was a part of a compilation of letters of sundry persons published in your paper by Henry Clews & Co. Please insert this correction, and oblige, yours, etc.,

W. W. TAYLOR,
Civil Engineer.

B. Hill, B. B. Hinton, E. Worrill for plaintiff in error.
M. H. Blandford, E. W. Miller contra.

J. A. Boyd, et al., vs. Amanda Butts, administratrix. Complaint from Marion.

McCAY, J.

When on the trial of a suit founded, on a debt contracted before June, 1865, in which the affidavit required by the Act of October 13th, 1870, was duly filed, the defendant, on the calling of the cause, and the announcement that both parties were ready, moved to dismiss the suit because the plaintiff had not sustained the affidavit, and the court overruled the motion, and subsequently, on the offering of the note in evidence objected to the evidence on the same ground, and on the plaintiff closing his case, made no motion for a non-suit, and after verdict for the plaintiff made no motion for new trial, but filed his bill of exceptions to the rulings of the court in the premises:

HELD, That the judge committed no error to justify this court in setting aside the verdict.

It is not sufficient to excuse the filing of an affidavit as required by the Act of October 13th, 1870, that the plaintiff alleges in his declaration, or claims, before the court, that he is and has been a non-resident, it must be shown to the court by the plaintiff's oath, or by other proof, that the fact of such non-residence is the truth.

L. Rooney vs. Mary Sammis and Rhoda Alford. Motion to dismiss, from Muscogee.

McCAY, J.

Where a motion to dismiss a pending suit was made, on the ground that no affidavit was filed as required by the first section of the Act of October 13th, 1870, and the record showed that the note was payable to Richard Sammis, with no words of negotiability, and the suit was in the name of two females, administratrixes and sole heirs at law of Richard Sammis, and it was in proof that the plaintiffs were widows and sole heirs of Sammis, and the court refused to dismiss the suit:

HELD, That the proof that the plaintiffs were the owners of the note in their own right is not entirely satisfactory, yet, as the court was satisfied with the proof, this Court will not disturb the judgement, leaving it to the parties more fully to test this question of the true, equitable ownership of the note before the jury on the trial.

When a fi. fa., founded on a debt due before June, 1865, was about to proceed to levy, and the plaintiff in lieu of the affidavit required by the 5th section of the Act of October, 1870, filed an affidavit that the judgment, which was in his own name, as well as the debt on which it was founded, belonged, in fact, to one who was a minor and who continued a minor until the spring of 1870, and the levy being made, the Judge of the Superior Court, on motion, dismissed the same.

HELD, That the affidavit did not show that the note belonged to one who was a minor at the date of the Act, and that there was no error in the judgment of the court dismissing the levy.

Henry C. Green, administrator vs. W. T. Allen, et al.. Bill in Equity, from Talbot.

McCAY, J.

When an estate is largely insolvent, and there are many creditors of equal degree, fifteen of whom have sued at law, and there are others which have not sued, the administrator may file a bill in equity to marshal the assets, and to compel the creditors to come and prove their debts, and not harrass the administrator with numerous suits. But he cannot join in such bill creditors of higher dignity, whose claims are undisputed; especially if they be judgments, at the death of the testator.

In this State a creditor cannot get a preferred lien on the assets of an estate as against other creditors of equal degree by getting the first judgment against the administrator.

Jas. C. Cook vs. John W. Duer, et al. Action on the case, from Muscogee.

McCAY, J.

A parol license to one to enjoy a permanent easment upon the land of another, (as to back water upon it) is an interest in the land, and must be in writing, by the statute of frauds, and is void at law.

But if the licensee, in pursuance of the license, goes forward, and for the enjoyment of easment, make large investments, and the easment be one in its nature permanent, equity will decree a specific performance as in other cases, of a part performance, by one party, of a parol contract for the sale of lands.

In this State, when a defendant in a suit at law might, by going into equity for specific performance, defeat the plaintiff's action at law, he may set up his equitable defence at law.

1. It is too late for an administrator, after he has been, by scire facias, made a party to a suit against his intestate, and another on a contract, to plead or object that the suit is such a one its face, as must go on against the survivor alone.

2. A suit against two as joint contractors, is not a suit against them as partners, simply because the bill of particulars attached to the declaration is an account against them by their several sirnames, the christian name of neither being mentioned, and the sirnames being connected with the character; and

3. In a joint suit against two, ever after a plea in abatement by one of misjoinder, the plaintiff may discontinue, as to one, and if his proof sustains his actions, as amended, he may recover against one alone.

4. When interrogatories are taken out by the defendant and crossed by the plaintiff, and both the direct and cross interrogatories are answered and the defendant introduces and reads to the jury the answers to the direct interrogatories, failing to read the answers to the cross interrogatories, and the plaintiff reads the answers to to the cross interrogatories, he does not thereby make the witness his witness, so that he cannot impeach him. The answers, to take the direct and cross questions, are the evidence of the party who offers to the jury the return of the commissioners.

5. This court will not interfere with the province of the jury to pass upon the facts unless the verdict be so grossly contrary to the testimony as to justify the inference of mistake, fraud, or prejudice.

Stanford & Golden vs. J. H. Bradford. Motion to distribute money, from Muscogee.

McCAY, J.

In an issue formed on a motion to distribute money between judgments one plaintiff in fi. fa. cannot attack the judgment of another plaintiff in fi. fa. on the ground of irregularities previous to the judgment; the defects to be subject to his objection must be such as are not amendable.

In a joint suit against several, if one be not served, the plaintiff may dismiss as to the one not served; and if he go on to the jury and get a verdict, the verdict is good against those served, though there be a failure to dismiss against the defendant not served. The defect is a mere irregularity, and does not make the judgment void.

Wm. Perry, et. al., vs R. M. Gunby. Recission of contract, from Muscogee.

MONTGOMERY, J.

When a bill of exceptions was carried to the Supreme Court without a motion having been made in the court below for a new trial, which bill of exceptions was dismissed, and the plaintiff in error, at a sucsequent term of the Superior Court, makes a motion for a new trial, he can only include in the motion such grounds as were not included in the bill of exceptions. The fact that some of those grounds were imperfectly stated, and might possibly have been stricken out on motion of defendant in error does not vary the rule.

There being some evidence to show a misrepresentation of a material fact by the plaintiff in error in this case, which was acted on by the defendant in error, the judgment of the court below refusing a new trial on the allegations that the verdict was contrary to evidence and the weight of evidence, and contrary to law and the equity and justice of the case, will not be disturbed.

Extinguishing Fires.

A very interesting experiment in extinguishing fires was made at the foot of Wall street, on Monday, the 22d instant, in the presence of a large number of prominent citizens. For the purpose of demonstrating the usefulness and the capacity of the Babcock Fire Extinguisher, a small frame house, twelve feet by fourteen inside, and fifteen feet high was erected, and in this were placed twelve tar barrels, a wagon-load of shavings and kindling-wood, and over the whole were poured ten gallons of kerosene oil and benzine. To this most inflammable mass a match was applied, and in an instant a roaring fire was raging. The flames leaped up almost instantaneously many feet above the top of the little house, and the assembled multitude scouted the idea of its being put out by any human agency. But a man soon appeared with one of the Babcock Extinguishers lashed to his back, and turning the stream of water and gas to the burning pile, in forty-five seconds he had entirely extinguished the fire. The feat was looked on almost as a miracle and the old firemen present said if they had found such a fire as that burning in any building they would have made no attempt to put it out, but would simply have endeavored to save the adjoining property.

These Extinguishers are comparatively new. They are different from those exhibited here some years ago, in the manner in which the gas is generated. In the old machines the cylinder was kept charged with the gas all time, and the consequence was the machines were strained under the pressure and rendered valueless in the time of need. In the Babcock machine, the gas is made instantaneously when it is wanted. All the ingredients are contained in the cylinder, and the simple lifting of a small rod precipitates one upon another, by which means the gas is evolved. In the machine used in Monday's experiment there was no gas until the fire was well going.—Evening Mail.

☞ An amusing anecdote is related of a man, who received a letter from his son in the army, begging him to send him some shoes and some money. The old man, willing to comply with the request, but having no readier means of forwarding the articles than the telegraph, procured the shoes and hung them on the wire. A laborer, returning home from his work, saw the shoes and cut them down, leaving his old ones instead. The old man next day came out to see how the wires had performed, was delighted, and exclaimed: "My poor boy has not only received the shoes, but has sent back his old ones!"

☞ A handsome young gentleman walked into the Adams Express office the other day, and desired to express a package of letters to a lady, to whom he desired to return them. "What are they worth?" asked the clerk, who, in making out his account, desired to know what was the risk. The young man hesitated a moment, then clearing his throat from a certain huskiness, replied: "Well, I can't say exactly, but a few weeks ago I thought they were worth about four hundred thousand dollars."—Lexington Press.

☞ An Irishman, with a heavy bundle on his shoulder, riding on the front of a horse-car, was asked why he did not set his bundle on the platform. He replied: "Be jabbers, the horses have enough to drag me—I'll carry the bundle."

ABOUT A DIAMOND PIN.—Amanda Fisher yesterday sued out a warrant before Justice Butt, charging Carrie Richardson and another colored girl with stealing from her a diamond breastpin worth $100. A preliminary hearing of the case comes off before Justice Butt at 9 o'clock this morning. Gartrell & Stephens for the prosecution. Mr. Jeffries for the defence.

PRINCIPAL KEEPER OF THE PENITENTIARY.—Mr. S. A. Darnell, Principal Keeper of the Penitentiary, tendered his resignation of that office Monday, which was accepted. We learn that His Excellency Gov. Smith has appointed W. S. Darnell, Esq., of Milledgeville, an active and sterling Democrat, (not related to the late incumbent,) to the position. We are pleased at this appointment, not only on account of the man selected, as from the fact that he was taken from Milledgeville—the location of the Penitentiary.

GREEN LINE MEETING.—The following officers of the "Green Line" were in the city yesterday and held a meeting: J. White, Superintendent M & W R R; Virgil Powers, Superintendent S W R R; W L Clark, Superintendent M & G R R; W Rogers, Superintendent C R R; J Foreacre, Superintendent W R R; L. L. Alabama; S Burnham, Superintendent M & E R R; ..., Superintendent A & W Pt R R; E B Walker, Transportation W & A R R; C W Anderson, N & C R R; R A Anderson, G F A, W & A R R; Whiteside, G Agt, C L Boats; W F Shelman, ..., W & E R R; C D Owens, G Agt, A & G R R; T ..., Claim Agt Green Line; R C Robson, Agt Green Line; D Fraser, Auditor W R R Alabama; R ..., Agt W R R Alabama; J O ..., Agt M & E R R.

THE WESTINGHOUSE ATMOSPHERIC BRAKE.—Yesterday evening the officers of the State Road afforded the members of the "Green Line" present in the city an opportunity of seeing the above invention tested. It has been in use for some time on this road. A train of five cars left the city at 3 o'clock and proceeded to a point just beyond Utoy, where the trial was made. In addition to the members of the "Green Line" we noted W. C. Morrill, Treasurer, and J. H. Flynn, Master Machinist of the State Road; B. Y. Sage, Superintendent Air Line Railroad; Gen. A. Austell, E. W. Holland, Col. Volney Dunning, Sleeping car agent, and others.

Here the most of the passengers got out. The train then ran back for a half mile and returned at a speed of forty miles per hour down a forty-foot grade. Major Flynn gave the signal with his hat, and in ... seconds the train was stopped in a distance of 300 feet.

Another trial was then had. This time the train ran at a speed of fifty miles per hour, and was stopped in a distance of about 450 feet in twenty seconds.

All expressed themselves pleased with the test. Car No. 16 in the train was a superb affair. The wheels were wood with steel flanges, and have been in use for three years. The car runs with perfect smoothness and freedom from jolting.

SHOOTING SCRAPE.—On Tuesday night, about 10 o'clock, a shooting scrape occurred on Decatur street, at the corner of ... and ... streets, in which M. W. Rasberry, policeman, was seriously if not mortally wounded. The ball entered just below the breast bone, (in the pit of the stomach,) and made its exit on the left side just below the nipple. Dr. W. F. Westmoreland is attending on the wounded man. From what we can gather, the facts seem to be that Mr. Rasberry and J. C. Murphy, who are fine detectives, were muffled up and on the look out for the robbers of the Fort Valley Bank. Mr. Penn Bedell and another gentleman came walking up, when Mr. Rasberry not recognizing Mr. Bedell, scrutinized his companion very closely in the face.

Mr. Bedell made some remarks to Rasberry which angered him, and he drew his pistol to fire. Bedell grasped the pistol and in the effort to wrench it from Rasberry, it went off, the ball going through his coat, and with the result stated.

Mr. Bedell was arrested and lodged in the calaboose. He stated that he had no pistol with him at the time, and that the relations between him and Rasberry were of the most friendly character.

A warrant was issued by Justice Butt against him for assault with intent to murder. A preliminary hearing will take place at 3 P. M., to-day.

Major S. B. Spencer will represent the State, and Messrs. Hill & Candler and Gartrell & Stephens, the defense.

Justice Butt took the deposition of Mr. Rasberry yesterday evening. It is said that this document complicates the case.

At a late hour last night Mr. Rasberry was lying in a very critical condition.

The Daily Constitution.

SHE IS NOT DEAD, BUT GONE BEFORE.

[Lines] INSCRIBED TO MRS. D. C. O'KEEFE ON THE DEATH OF SALLIE.

[For] the Constitution.]

She is not dead, but gone before,
Into the world of love and light;
Gathered safe in the Savior's home,
Worshipping now with his angels bright.
She was too good, too pure, too holy,
For a longer stay in this world of sin;
So the gates of Heaven were opened,
And the angels lovingly bore her in.

But, Oh! for us too soon the angels
Did the heavenly gate unclose—
Too soon for us she passed the portals
To her long and sweet repose.
For we would have kept her longer,
Even when the angels came;
But, alas! sweet memories of her
Are all the fondest now can claim.

Mother, though thy heart is lonely,
And you miss her pleasant voice,
Vainly listen for the footsteps
Which once made thy heart rejoice;
Think of the path of peace unending,
That lies before your loved one's feet,
While with groups of winged seraphs
She lightly treads the golden street.

The bird-like voice whose joyous tones
Made glad thy heart, thy hearthstone bright,
Sings now an everlasting song,
Around the eternal throne of light;
And tho' you're longing for the sunshine,
Of her loving, gentle smile,
Think—she's only gone before you—
Tarry yet a little while.

Then when the pale and silent boatman
Comes to waft thy spirit o'er,
She'll be fondly waiting for thee
On the blest eternal shore;
And then upon the rolling river
You'll gently float by the sunset lea,
Pass from out the evening shadows
Into the light where she waits for thee.

ANNIE.

Atlanta, February 29, 1872.

The Japanese.

The arrival of the Japanese embassy in Washington is really a very remarkable event. The embassy consists of T. Iwakura, Ambassador Extraordinary, Vice President of his Imperial Majesty's ministry—who is the premier of the empire; of T. Kido, Assistant Ambassador, member of the Privy Council; T. Okubo, Assistant Ambassador, Minister of Finance; H. Ito, Assistant Ambassador, Assistant Minister of Industry; and Y. Yamukuchi, Assistant Ambassador, Second Assistant Minister of Foreign Affairs; with seventeen secretaries and attachees, and a number of attendants. Besides the embassy proper, there are a number of Commissioners from the several departments of the Japanese Government, whose duty it will be to collect information with regard to the conduct of similar departments in our government. These are Sasakir, Assistant Minister of the Judiciary, and four attachees; Hyacikuse, Chief of the Imperial Court, and one attachee; Yaneda, one of the Generals of the army, and one attache; Tanaka, Commissior of the Census, and five attaches; Tanaka, Assistant Commissioner of Education, and five attaches; Hida, Commissioner of Ship building Department, and two attaches; Takasaki, Commissioner from the Assembly, and one attache. In addition to the members of the Embassy and the Commissioners, there are about sixteen private persons, including five females—mere girls belonging to "gentle life"—who come here for an English education.

The five young ladies who accompany the Embassy, the Misses Yasbemas, Onyeda, Yamagwa, Tsuda and Nagai, are not strictly "Princesses," though daughters of high wealthy officials, and members of the Japanese "upper ten." The two oldest, who are about sixteen years of age, have an excellent Japanese education, and the other three have advanced as far in native studies as their youth would admit.

A San Francisco correspondent, referring to the recent stay of these young ladies in that city, thus describes them:

"The five daughters of Daimios, young and rather pretty, of good figures, small feet, small hands, and little eyes, elaborate chignons, also seraphic smiles, wore wide pantaloons and sleeved tunics, belted at the waist and folded over the chest, showing the throat and the loveliness thereabout. They were very curious, and wanted to see Alexis."

What the Features Indicate.

We are told that the extremes of both largeness and smallness of stature are not favorable to the strength of intellect. Giants and dwarfs are generally deficient in this respect, and excessive corpulency or meagerness is seldom associated with mental activity. Aristotle and Bonaparte, however, were very short. Charles James Fox was exceedingly fat, Daniel Webster both broad and tall, and Lord Nelson a living skeleton.

A large head is generally the accompaniment of a great intellect; but a small one, with a comparatively extensive forehead, is quite consistent with mental capacity. Raphael, Charles XII, Frederick the Great, and Lord Brougham were illustrations of the latter fact.

It is said that any nose which is less than the height of the forehead is an indication of the defective intellectual powers.

The eyes indicated character rather by color than form. The dark blue are found most commonly in persons of a gentle and refined character. Light blue and gray in the rude and energetic. Lavator says: "Hazel eyes are the more usual indications of a mind masculine, vigorous and profound; just as a genius, so called, is almost always associated with eyes of a yellowish cast bordering on hazel."

The higher the brows rise the more their possessor is supposed to be under the influence of feeling, and the lower the better controlled by his reason.

A very small eyebrow is an indication of want of force of character.

A tolerable large mouth is essential to vigor and energy, and a very small mouth is indicative of weakness and indolence.

In a manly face the upper lip should extend beyond and dominate the lower, and fleshy lips are oftener found associated with voluptuous, and meager ones with a passionate nature.

The retreating chin indicates weakness, the perpendicular strength, and the sharp acuteness of mind.

History of the Cent.

The old red cent is rapidly passing away, and it will not be long before it will only be known in memory and numismatic collections. Its history is a matter of sufficient interest for preservation. The cent was first proposed by Robert Morris, the great financier of the Revolution, and was named by Jefferson two years after. It began to make its appearance from the mint in 1792. It bore the head of Washington on one side and thirteen links on the other. The French revolution soon created a rage for French idea in America, which put on the cent, instead of the head of Washington, the head of the Goddess Liberty—a French Liberty, with flowing locks. The chain on the reverse was replaced by the olive wreath of peace. But the French Liberty was short lived, and so was the portrait on our cent. The next head or figure succeeding this—the staid, classic dame, with a fillet around her hair—came into fashion about thirty or forty years ago, and the finely chiseled Grecian features have been but slightly altered in the lapse of time.

☞ It is related of Mlle. Pauline Lucca, who detests Wagner's music, that on one occasion while fulfilling an engagement at Pesth, she said she would not sing any of it for a million of money. The newspapers, hearing of this observation, insinuated that she could not. This touched the prima donna's pride, and in three days she studied Elisa, which was performed by her with startling success. However, as soon as the performance was over, she sent the part back to the manager, and since then she expressly stipulates in all her German engagements that she is not to sing any of the hated composer's music.

☞ He who cannot find time to consult the Bible will one day find that he has time to be sick; he who has no time to pray must find time to die; he who can find no time to reflect is most likely to find time to sin; he who cannot find time for repentance will find an eternity, in which repentance will be of no avail; he who cannot find time to work for other days may find an eternity in which to suffer himself.

☞ With the prayer, "Lead me not into temptation" on your lip, choose for the right. God, though the choice make you confront a solid rock. God shall render the rock accessible, and cover it with brighter greenness, and make it more radiant with flowers.

Reading Notices.

A CLEAR HEAD.—To have a clear head we must have good blood, a free circulation, which Dr. Price's Blood Enricher will give to any person disposed to make the trial. It aids nature in increasing vital power, and is a most valuable agent in all nervous derangements. Sold by all druggists, who also sell Dr. Price's cream baking powder. feb27-deod2w&w2t

ON EVERYBODY'S TONGUE.—Eulogiums of the great national regenerator of health, Plantation Bitters, are on everybody's tongue. This gratuitous viva voce advertising is better than all the paid for puffing to which the owners of bogus bitters are obliged to resort. It has a spontaneous heartiness about it which carries conviction to the mind of the auditor. But it is a well known fact that the proprietors of the Plantation Bitters have never relied upon newspaper bolstering to establish the success of a preparation which owes its astonishing popularity mainly to the oral testimony of the thousands who have either experienced or been the eye witness of the immense physical good it has wrought throughout the length and breadth of the land. mar5-deod1w&w1t

A COUGH, cold, or sore throat, requires immediate attention, as neglect oftentimes results in some incurable lung disease, "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief. mar5-tues thur sat

THIS is no apology for whisky drinking; it is a medicine that cannot be used to intoxicate; it produces a tonic effect, as well as acts as a cathartic. In fact, Simmons' Liver Regulator is pronounced an unexceptionable medicine. mar5-d1w&w1t

PERIODIC DISORDERS.—The paroxysmal maladies which are characterized by heat and cold, prevail extensively at this season, and is a curious fact that in many parts of the country where they are prevalent, other diseases, that bear no general resemblance to fever and ague, or remittent fever, assume a periodic type. Thus, in many sections infested with chills and fever, rheumatism, neuralgia, hysteria, diarrhœa, &c., sometimes become intermittent, thereby indicating that they have been engendered by the same poisonous exhalations which produce the first named disease.

In all these masked cases of ague—for such they are—as well as in the regular intermittents, the most safe and reliable remedy that can be administered is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Neither quinine nor arsenic are needed. Both are in the highest degree dangerous, and are sure to leave sad traces of their poisonous action in the system, whether they arrest the paroxysms or not. In many instances all the so-called specifics of the "regular" materia medica utterly fail to "break up" intermittent and remittent disorders. But the great vegetable Tonic never fails. The spasm of the minute blood-vessels which causes the chill, is the result of nervous weakness, produced by the debilitating operation of an unwholesome atmosphere, and the tone and vigor given to the nervous system by the Bitters, enable it to throw off the disease. The wiser policy, however, is to anticipate attacks of this nature, by arousing all the latent energies of the body at the commencement of the moist and chilly season, with this incomparable antidote. By pursuing this course, intermittents, remittents, rheumatism, colic, biliousness, dyspepsia and pulmonary affections may always be prevented. mch5-deod1w&w1t

THE BONDS OF GEORGIA.

Official Notice to the Bond Holders.

An Act

To protect the people of the State of Georgia against the illegal and fraudulent issue of bonds and securities, and for other purposes connected with the same.

Whereas, Divers bonds, purporting to be bonds of the State of Georgia, and divers bonds bearing the indorsement of the State, have been issued and put in circulation by Rufus B. Bullock, late Governor of said State, and divers bonds issued prior to his administration, have been negotiated by him: And whereas, it is believed that a large portion of said bonds have been illegally and fraudulently issued and negotiated, and the extent and amount of said bonds so issued and negotiated is unknown to this General Assembly.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia, That there shall be a committee appointed of three, one by the President of the Senate, and two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall have full power and authority to examine and ascertain the number of bonds which have been issued as hereinbefore recited in the preamble of this act, and the aggregate amount thereof; and so far as they have been sold or hypothecated, by whom sold, the amount of money paid, to whom paid, when paid, for what purpose negotiated, and all other facts connected with the history of said bonds, and to report the same to the General Assembly at its next session.

OLD PREJUDICES ARE DYING OUT. New facts are killing them. The idea that invalids weakened by disease can be relieved by prostrating them with destructive drugs, is no longer entertained except by monomaniacs. Ever since the introduction of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS it has been obvious that their regulating and invigorating properties are all-sufficient for the cure of chonic indigestion, rheumatism, constipation, diarrhœa, nervous affections, and malarious fevers, and they are now the standard remedy for these complaints in every section of the Union. feb16—d&wtf

FROM the mountains of Colorado, from the warm sunny South, from the rocky hills of New England, comes the assurance of the excellence and long-keeping qualities of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. mch5-deod1w&w1t

POISONED TO DEATH.—A healthy liver secretes each day about two and a half pounds of bile, which contains a great amount of waste material taken from the blood. When the liver becomes torpid or congested, it fails to eliminate this vast amount of noxious substance, which therefore remains to poison the blood and be conveyed into every part of the system. What must be the condition of the blood when it is receiving and retaining each day two and a half pounds of poison? Nature tries to work off this poison through other channels and organs—the kidneys, lungs, skin, etc.; but these organs become overtaxed in performing this labor, in addition to their natural functions, and cannot long withstand this pressure, but becomes variously diseased.

The brain, which is the great electrical centre of all vitality, is unduly stimulated by the unhealthy blood which passes to and from the heart, and it fails to perform its office healthfully. Hence the symptoms of bile poisoning, which are dullness, headache, incapacity to keep the mind on any subject, impairment of memory, dizzy, sleepy, or nervous feeling, gloomy forebodings, and irritability of temper. The blood itself being diseased as it forms the sweat upon the surface of the skin, it is so irritating and poisonous that it produces discolored brown spots, pimples, blotches and other eruptions, sores, boils and scrofulous tumors. The stomach, bowels and other organs spoken of, cannot escape becoming affected sooner or later, and costiveness, piles, dropsy, dyspepsia, diarrhœa, female weakness and many other forms of chronic disease, are among the necessary results. As a remedy for all these various manifestations of disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequaled. By it the liver and stomach are changed to an active, healthy state, the appetite regulated and restored, the blood and secretions thoroughly purified and enriched, and the whole system renovated and built up anew. Sold by all first-class druggists. mch5-deod1w&w1t

ATLANTA City Hospital.

THE need of a CITY HOSPITAL for Atlanta has long been felt, but all efforts heretofore for the establishment of such have failed, our people being too poor to raise the money necessary for such a purpose, and the depleted condition of our State Treasury being such as to render successful legislation in the matter both impracticable and hopeless.

It is, therefore, proposed to appeal to all friends of so benevolent a project, and thus secure a nucleus to encourage an increase of the private donations already promised, which will render the scheme a success; and while the erection of such an Institution will be an enduring Monument to the Charity and Liberality of our citizens, it will also be in keeping with our onward march in the cause of Civilization and Progress.

For every Two Dollars subscribed, an equal interest will be given the holder of Certificate thereof in the distribution of

$2.00 Each $100,000

The value of the separate interest to which the holder of certificate will be entitled will be determined by the Commissioners who will announce to the public the manner, the time, and the place of distribution.

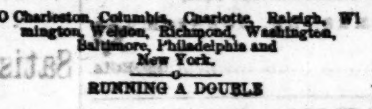

The following gentlemen are to act as Commissioners, and will receive and take proper charge of the money for the Hospital, and will determine upon the plan and site for the same, to-wit:
